Registration is not mandatory but your registration will help us plan for the event. Same-old, same-old politics got you down? Let us give you a lift. See AGENDA below.

Blue Jean Nation, the Wisconsin Grassroots Network and Frame for the Future are teaming up to host a series of meet-ups scattered across the state to challenge conventional habits that have repeatedly failed us and showcase new approaches to campaigning that actually work. On top of that, take advantage of an opportunity to meet some groundbreaking candidates who are running in jeans and appealing to voters in ways that are decidedly different.

Other events include:

- Wednesday, July 6 in Fort Atkinson at the Foster Public Library's "Community Room" from 6 - 9:pm.
 - For more information or to Register visit:

- Thursday, July 7 in the Wausau Area at the Central Wisconsin Regional Airport (Mosinee) in the lower conference room (017) from 6 - 9pm.

- For more information or to Register visit: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/community-change-through-campaigns-tickets-26282602973>

Join us as we explore the shared values of blue jean candidates:

- With great freedom comes great responsibility.
- Democracy is caring citizens acting on their empathy.
- Our private life and prosperity depends on The Public (government).
- The Public and our elected officials have a moral responsibility to protect AND empower the people they serve.

Prepare to have old ways challenged, and bring ideas to share. Explore with us what works and what doesn't. Meet and mingle with some who are out there breaking the mold on the campaign trail right now.
