FANTASTIC NEWS!

Wis. State Journal: Appeals Court approves legal strategy for anticipatory private nuisance!

Attorney Tim Jacobson hailed the ruling as “a huge victory for private property rights” that will allow similar claims to move forward.

A key part of the article states:

A Wisconsin appeals court ... may open a door for legal challenges based on damages that have yet to occur.... A three-judge appeals panel last week ... ruled that their legal strategy – known as “anticipated private nuisance” – is recognized under Wisconsin law.
